

Study Abroad in Wales

Summer I

June 11-July 7, 2018

- . Cardiff, and the National Assembly for Wales
- . Museum visits and archival research
- . The Brecon Beacons National Park for hiking
- . Castles and beaches of the south Wales coast
- . Industrial heritage tourism sites
- . Celtic music jam sessions and cultural events
- . A stay in London at the trip's end

Approximately $2,483.59 per student. This covers travel in the UK, lodging, activity fees, and all meals. AIRFARE AND TUITION NOT INCLUDED. Students are responsible for booking their individual flights.

Earn credit in

Anthropology

Appalachian Studies

English

Government & Justice
Studies

Rhetoric & Composition

